Best June Ever!

TORONTO - Friday, July 6, 2007.

Last month the Toronto Real Estate Market recorded 10,451 sales for the best June performance ever, Toronto Real Estate Board President Donald Bentley announced today. "June's figure was up almost 20 per cent over the 8,730 sales recorded during the same month in 2006, and down only slightly (six per cent) from May's best-ever figure of 11,146 sales. To get some idea of the current strength of the market: there have been more sales in the last two months (21,597) than occurred in all of 1977 (20,512), thirty years ago this year."

While the sales pace remained brisk, average prices declined marginally (less than one per cent) from May to $381,963. The year-to-date average was $373,719, up five per cent over the first six months of 2006 ($356,977).

"Price increases remain only modest," noted the President. "Inventory, at 21,789, is robust enough to keep a lid on upward inflation. The current market is still accessible to first-time buyers, and should continue in this mode for the foreseeable future."

Breaking down the total, 3,936 sales were reported in TREB's 28 West districts and averaged $356,513; 1,819 sales were reported in the 14 Central districts and averaged $513,491; 2,248 sales were reported in the 23 North districts and averaged $406,565; and 2,448 sales were reported in TREB's 21 East districts and averaged $302,558. ■
