
Toronto Real Estate Board Responds to Court Judgment

TORONTO, December 7, 2009 - A decision from Justice Brown has been received in the matter of Fraser Beach (applicant) and the Toronto Real Estate Board (Respondent). The Judge has dismissed Mr. Beach's application and will not grant him any of the relief he asked for at trial.

TREB is pleased with the decision and feels the integrity of the MLS system and the rights of sellers, consumers and brokers have been protected," says Don Richardson, Chief Executive Officer for the Toronto Real Estate Board.

TREB dutifully provides services to its Member REALTORS® who agree to and abide by the user agreement terms. The applicant Fraser Beach was found in violation of the authorized user agreement terms he agreed to abide by.

The decision shows that TREB acted reasonably and responsibly on behalf of REALTOR® Members and the public they serve.

Greater Toronto REALTORS® are passionate about their work. They adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and share a state-of-the-art Multiple Listing Service.
